I was now working at the Dulas Valley Hotel, Corris as a house keeper, cleaning, taking bookings, laundry, helping in the kitchen, almost everything except bar work. My employers were Norman Hodge and his wife who I liked very much as we worked well together. There were several employers after but Norman was the best.

I cycled to the hotel on my push bike as it was about a mile from Ceinws, the journey there was up hill and hard work but I'd free wheel all the way home. Sometime my parents would call in for a coffee in the mornings after being to the Doctor's surgery at Corris.

Xmas was a very busy time, I worked Xmas eve, Xmas day, New Years eve and New Years day. The mess after all the parties was unbelievable and I usually ended up clearing it all up on my own. Ann and Barry came to stay with Ray and I Xmas 1987 and because I had to work, we all had Xmas dinner at the Hotel. We enjoyed it very Much. I worked at the hotel for 7 years and could write a complete book about my experiences there but it would take too long!
