Dear Jack:

It was certainly our pleasure to host the Gymanfa Ganu Association Convention here at the Philadelphia Sheraton Hotel and also the St. David's Society of Youngstown Ohio.

Also, it was my personal pleasure to be able to do business with you, and I am looking forward in the near future to seeing you once again.

Jack, please convey my best wishes to your wife. You are quite lucky to have a young lady from the wonderful county of Mayo in Ireland.

Any time I can be of assistance to you, please feel free to call me.

Sincerely,

As secretary of the W.N.G.G.A. and on behalf of the entire membership, I congratulate you and your entire committee on a job well done.

The majority of people that I spoke with had nothing but praise, even though you had an uphill battle due to adverse publicity.

Personelly I was very happy with the end result after six years of corresponding as I'm sure you were.

Good luck to you and your committee in your future endeavors,
 if there is anything I can do to help please call on me.

Miss Elisabeth Griffiths.
[Redacted] Curtis Ave
Abington, Pa. 19001.

Dear Elisabeth.

The work was hard, long and some times frustrating,
but the fruits of your hard were bountiful thak you very much.

You and your entire committee are to be congratulated on a job well done, ther was never a doubt in my mind of what the results would be, but I do have to admit now that I was a little worried toward the end due to the scare of the Legion Flu, no doubt there would have been many more hundreds there if that had not happened.

As you might have learned from previous Nationals some people tried to put on a big front and you saw the results financeially.
but I'm glad you stuck to the more old fashioned ideas and came out on top, again thanks.

Dave Edwards ~~was~~ our treasurer was so elated when I phoned and told him the good news, and I'M sure that your report will put some people to shame when it is read out in Ottawa.

Elisabeth as for myself I cannot find words to express my gratitude, but as Mr George Bundy alway's if you make people happy and for the enhancement of Welsh Hymnology the work was worth it.

Mrs Meadows and I wish for you a very pleasant holiday and we will see you in Ottawa.

Bon Voyage.

very sincerely yours
