Secretary,

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio. 44512

Dear Jack:

As discussed at our recent meeting, I am attaching a proposal for fees to be charged at our Gymanfa Ganu next year. Will you please bring this proposal before the Board of Trustees and let us have your decision in due course?

I am also attaching a copy of the Hotel Vancouver's confirmation of the hotel rates they outlined to us at our meeting.

It was nice seeing you again and I hope you had a good journey back. Gwenfyl will doubtless have told you that Glyn has been taken ill, and we are only hoping and praying that he will soon be back to good health again.

All good wishes,

Sincerely,

Alice

Dear Jack:

I have been re-reading the letters you sent under the postmark of November 7. In case you need an opinion as to the queries Alice Thomson made in her letter to you, here are my comments:

The prices for the fees seem quite reasonable. In fact I hope inflation will stay at its present level; otherwise the Vancouver group might have to revise its fees upward!

The hotel prices are comparable to those in Niagara Falls and while we could wish they were not that level, I would not be surprised if other hotels in the Vancouver area are charging more.

After the first of the year we will really start work on trying to get a group flight from San Francisco to Vancouver. There are so many angles to traveling these days we will need a coordinator who works for a travel agency. Not too long ago we had such a member, but right now no one seems to remember her name. Next time we put out our local newsletter I will check our address cards (which our secretary keeps) and see what we can do.

Sincerely,

Donna

Jack

Don't know whether you are seeking opinions w/schedules but do concern w/ them. Unfortunately the hotel is more than I would like but inflation and all large cities are quoting prices in the same bracket.

Hope you and your wife have a nice Thanksgiving and a blessed Christmas to follow.

Sincerely
Tom Miller

The Philadelphia Bi-Centennial Gymanfa Ganu Association

welcomes you to the 45th Welsh National Gymanfa Ganu on September 2, 3, 4 and 5, 1976.

5025 N. Park Ave.,
 Philadelphia, Pa. 19141,
 December 10, 1979.

Mr. Jack Meadows,
 Southern Blvd.,
 Youngstown, Ohio 44512.

In reference to the 1980, Vancouver Gymanfa Ganu, I would be inclined to suggest approval of the fees as proposed by the Vancouver Committee. The only reservation I have is on the Registration Fee; $4.00 does seem a little high. My concern always is that we not price the Gymanfa Ganu beyond the means of some who have attended for so many years.

Previous to receiving your communication I was not sure whether the decision on proposed fees ^{for} each Gymanfa Ganu was made by the Executive Committee or whether each member of the Board of Trustees was asked for an opinion. Since you went to the trouble and expense of mailing copies of the Vancouver correspondence I guess you do want our comments. It seems to me the events planned by the sponsoring committee, as well as the rates thereon, are worthy of approval.

Sincerely yours,

Irene Pritchard
