National Gymanfa Ganu.

Gentlemen.

It is the task of the secretary of all societies & organizations at some time or other to perform an unpleasant duty-this consider one of them.

On page six (6) paragraph four (4) Financial Statements of the Rules & Regulations which is enclosed, governing the sponsoring organization of a National Gymanfa Ganu.

It is also imperative that I recieve the registration forthwith, since it has caused some concern with the progress of the 1978 National in getting out the advanced notices to the registrants.

If no action is taken within twenty days from the above date a copy of this letter will be mailed to the Board of Trustee's.

Sincerely yours

Jack Meadows

Gentlemen.

Your package recieved Sunday Feb,26th,but to my surprise
 after double checking the registration cards I find only,
 5 people registered from Calif,2 from Conn,1 from Washington D.C.
 2,from Fla, 2,from Ill,4,from Mass,3,from Mich,2,from Minn,
 1,from N.J.65,from N.Y.9,from Ohio,5,Pa,1,from Vermont,
 1,from Wisc,and 9,from the U.K. which totals 450,with 9 no addresses.

Now,gentlemen since there were 82 people on my tour and 40 from Cleveland ohio and that you stated that there were over 1400 pre-registrated would you please qualify,as I am sure there must be some mistake.

Sincerely yours

Don Mills, Ont, Canada. M3A 2A3,

Dear Madam President.

Your censorship on Monday the 13th was, I think uncalled for, that's why the quick cut off, I was angry.

Last evening I recieved a phone call from a Mr Kilroy who was on the 1977 Gymanfa registration committee, and said I was correct in my assumption of there being an error, he also said our figures corresponded with what he had mailed me, they were the ones that were registrated at the hotel, and that the pre-registration cards were set aside and that he was very sorry for the inconvenience and oversight, but he would get the rest of the cards in the mail immediately.

Sincerely.

Dear Dave:

Thank you for sending me the Ottawa statement which appalls me as much as it does you. So that we do not duplicate, I have asked Jack Meadows if he is sending a copy to all the Trustees at this time or whether I should do so. I don't think any comment is necessary - it speaks for itself. Then, as I told you, I shall make a large number of copies so that they will be available for the annual meeting, as you suggested. However, I think the Trustees should get theirs before the Board Meeting on the Friday afternoon.

Now on the Endowment Fund, I have written Elwyn Jenkins again today, as copy enclosed, and would appreciate your following through for me and going ahead and investing at least $5,000 in certificates of deposit or whatever "trustee" securities are recommended down there. Please let me know how you make out.

Sincerely,

Eluned
