Dear Jack:

Thank you so much for your good wishes. I am so happy to have been elected to serve as Recording Secretary. It is a great honor, one which I never dreamed I would receive. I can assure you I shall do my best. Just drop me a line anytime I can be of service.

When you get a chance, send me about 20 Life Membership Cards, and also some of the regular cards. I will work on the St. David's people here and my Welsh Club. I have always thought that we did not promote this enough in our own localities. Now that I am an official part of your organization, I will push it. I hope I can come up with a few anyway.

The Philadelphia Gymanfa was outstanding. I will write Elizabeth Griffiths to tell her so. She did an outstanding job. Lynn Harry has to be the greatest. He was such an inspiring Director.

I have also written to Catherine Dodd. I am sorry she had to give it up. She is such a dear person and I know it was hard for her to have to resign. I really do appreciate all the support I received from you and the other Trustees. But then, I have been making a living at this business for 50 years so ought to do a good job. I will do my best.

Had a letter from Betty this morning. She still is unable to drive her car but hopes to in a few weeks. She really has had a rough time. I hope she will try again for the Board of Trustees of WNGGA. She is a very wonderful person. I really enjoyed serving as her National Secretary last year.

Write me anytime you have any chores I can do.

Sincerely,

Alice

P.S. Please note my telephone numbers above. Thank you for the WNGGA list.
