

LILY WEBBE

HERITAGE

Lily Webbe was born in Llandough Hospital, Penarth.

She is of mixed heritage, with family roots in St. Kitts in the Caribbean.

Growing up, that side of her family shaped her personality; a direct, honest attitude and pride in speaking openly.

WALES MEANS...

BIG - HEART COMMUNITY PRIDE

Lily grew up in a predominantly white area where only a handful of pupils in her school were Black.

As she grew older, Wales began to feel like home when she found community through music, creativity and people who shared her energy and identity.

“YOU DON'T HAVE TO FIT IN.
FITTING IN IS BORING.”

MUSIC 🎵

CONTRIBUTION

Lily works with young people through music and creative development projects.

Following a path shaped by her family's involvement in community arts, she supports emerging talent and community initiatives.

Through music and mentorship, she hopes to leave a positive imprint on the next generation.

STRENGTHS & JOY

Lily's greatest strength is singing and performing.

Music, friendship and everyday moments of creativity bring her the greatest joy.

“TAKE THINGS AT YOUR OWN PACE,
BUT STAY PERSISTENT...
WE'RE GETTING THERE.”
