

THE HOPKINS FAMILY

John 'Snowy' Hopkins

Approaching 80 years of age, Snowy Hopkins is our 'King of the River Towy'.

Snowy always been proud of his coracle links and it's well worth a visit to his local pub as he'll entertain you for hours with stories of the river.

Snowy is a master fisherman and skilled net maker. Still making nets at his home, the current coracle men and indebted to the help and tuition he has offered them over the years, ensuring he passes his knowledge to the next generation.

Snowy has fished with his son Gary in D3's coracle for many years. Following in the family tradition is Snowy's brother, Peter Hopkins, who fishes in a D10 coracle.
