

THE HOPKINS FAMILY

Snowy is still telling stories of when he was young, living by the river.

(small house at the end of the quay was Snowy's home)

They lived so close to the water's edge, that they had elvers coming up the plug holes so his mum would have to push them back down.

The American GIs who arrived in Carmarthen during WW2 were in awe when they saw his white blond hair, 'Hey Snowy' they shouted to the 4yr old John Hopkins, who had white blonde hair. The name Snowy has stayed ever since!
