In the meantime, if any local resident wishes to contribute, in response to the Duke's appeal, such donations may be paid in to the manager of the Midland Bank, Llangollen, for the credit of the local fund.

Yours faithfully,

COUNCIL OF YOUTH ANNUAL MEETING APRIL 29

Mr Weekes took the chair, supported by Mrs Isobel Roberts (Hon. Sec.) who read the Minutes of the previous A.G.M. There was a very good attendance.

Mr Weekes asked those present to stand as a tribute of respect to the late Mr R. Llewelyn Hughes who had been president since the inception of the movement in Llangollen, and who had done so much to help in founding the Youth Council and Club. The Rev J. W. Worthington added his tribute. He had been in contact with Mr Hughes since 1944 and had been impressed and encouraged by his unflinching interest.

In the unavoidable absence of Mr H. C. Rowlands, Mr Caesar Hughes read the financial statement, which showed a satisfactory balance. Mr Rowlands sent a message to say that in future no bank charges would be made on the account—except, of course, for overdrafts!

Mr Berrington gave his annual report, starting with the successful "Youth on Parade" Show on May 8, 1959, the activities during the year, included Physical Fitness, Football, Cricket, Table-tennis, Athletics, Netball, Cross Country, Quiz Competitions, Discussions, Leatherwork and a Handiman's Group. We were unfortunate in losing the services of Mr Bert Russell for the P.T. Class (Mr Russell has been appointed Organiser for C.C.P.R. West Wales). However, Mr Arthur Ellis has done a good job in keeping the P.T. Class together and put on a good show at the Concert in aid of World Refugee Year.

The football team have had a most successful year. In the County Youth Senior League, we have only lost four games and we also reached the final of the Soames County Youth Cup, and we brought home the runners-up shield.

The Table-tennis team played in the Glyndwr Group League, and finished about the half-way mark in the league.

We organised the Cross Country Run for the Welsh Assoc. Boys

Clubs in February. Next year we plan to make it an evening event.

The Leatherwork Group has proved to be our most popular activity. Mr Roberts has shown great interest in the club once again and we thank him sincerely for never-failing service. The leatherwork class sent off 17 articles as entries for the National Association Boys Clubs "Arts Festival" held at Ellesmere Port on April 30.

At this point, I would like to add my personal tribute to Mr Llewelyn Hughes, our late President. Although I had only known Mr Hughes for a matter of two years, I was tremendously impressed by his keen and generous interest in the Youth of the Town. He was a man of great character who will be sadly missed.

I would like to thank Mr Caesar Hughes, who as our Vice-Chairman, often deputised for Mr Weekes. Mr Hughes has had one or two tricky problems and decisions to make during the year and has never failed to give his time and his valuable service, I am sure we all sincerely thank you, Mr Hughes.

It is with regret however, that we have to say "Farewell" to Mr Weekes from this committee. On coming to Llangollen in January, 1958, the Club was at a very low ebb, the building as a Youth Club had been closed for about six months and financially we were in debt of about £120. The whole thing really had to be re-started and built up, and it is my firm belief that had we not had at that crucial time in the history of the Club, a man of Mr Weekes calibre as Chairman, there would not have been any sort of Youth Club in Llangollen to-day.

In conclusion Mr Berrington referred to the Albermarle Report and said there was a great need to attract boys of over 17 years of age and to offer more facilities for indoor and outdoor sport.

Miss Gwyneth Thomas presented her first report as Girls Leader.

On the first night she had 15 girls, now she has 50. Two netball teams had been formed and tennis and rounders would be played in summer. Lately they had been busy rehearsing for the Concert given April 22nd.

Officers were elected as follows: President: Mr Ieuan Lloyd Jones; Vice-Presidents: Rev J. W. Worthington; Mr George Williams, Oswestry and Mr E. V. Weekes, soon, alas, to reside at Cobham, Surrey; Chairman: Mr Caesar Hughes; Vice-Chairman: Miss Gwyneth Jones; Hon. Sec. Mrs Isobel Roberts; Hon. Treas.: Mr H. C. Rowlands.

Mr Berrington proposed that a request be sent to the Director of Education to allow members of the Youth Club to use the gymnasium in the new School buildings for P.T. in the evenings.

This was carried unanimously.

Tea was served by Miss Thomas, after which Mr J. D. Williams addressed the meeting.

U.D.C. MAY 3

Mr Miller being unfortunately absent owing to illness, Coun. Mann took the Chair.

A letter from the family of the late Mr R. Llewelyn Hughes was read, expressing thanks for the Council's condolences.

A letter from Mr Robert Avery was read complaining that the Memorial Hall was used for retail sales, (reference, recent Carpet Sale). The matter was referred to the Rating Officer.

In reply to a letter from the "Liverpool Daily Post", it was resolved to put in an advertisement re Plas Newydd in their forthcoming special holiday resorts issue.

From the Minutes adopted, the following points are of interest:

Of the 20 new houses being built at Maes Pengwern, one is to be allocated to Monsanto Chemicals Ltd.

The Welsh Guards Band will give a programme of music in Llangollen on August 15, the week of the Shrewsbury Flower Show.

Mrs Doris Johnson of Whitehurst has been appointed General Clerical Assistant. She was present at the Council Meeting.

Plans for a piggery at Vicarage Farm, submitted by Mr D. C. Rogers were approved for submission to the County Planning Authority.

On March 31, Couns. Bennet and Miller had attended a meeting at Wrexham on the Re-grouping of Water Undertakings. Representatives of local authorities were there, also of the Wrexham and East Denbs Water Co. and of the Ministry of Housing.

It was resolved that the matter be on the Agenda of the G.P. Committee to be held in July.

The April G. P. Committee had received a letter from Llangollen's Youth Leader expressing concern at the future of the Recreation Ground. A reply informing him of the present position was sent.

The Chairman and Clerk will represent the U.D.C. at the Eisteddfod Proclamation Ceremony at Ponciau, Rhos, on June 22.

The Housing Committee on April 22 dealt with cases of accommodation of relatives by tenants, some without previous consent. These come up again for consideration on June 30. The owners of two apparently abandoned cars at Pengwern were requested to remove them within 14 days.

Two Conferences. Today, May 10 the Association of Public Health Inspectors meet at Rhyl and films on modernisation and improvement of dwelling houses will be shown, and a talk on Improvement Grants will be given by a Housing Officer from Whitehall. Mr Cuffin and Mr Fawcett have been appointed to attend also to attend the Housing and Planning Conference at Colwyn Bay on May 27.

For the remainder of the term of the lease with the late Mr T. W. Waltho, the town hall shop in which he carried on business has been sublet to Messrs Caesar Hughes Ltd., who has bought the stock-in-trade. The lease terminates 1st May, 1961.

Tenders for improvements to the Market and Car park in the Smithfield are now to be invited by Press advertisements.

Unity Structurers Ltd. are to be asked to prepare drainings for the Aged Persons' Bungalows at Pengwern. Price tenders will be invited through the Press.

A progress report on the Sewerage Scheme was submitted, and Mr Bennett asked that in future the report made by Messers Gerrard should be in simpler terms, capable of general comprehension.

Before certain items arising from the Minutes were taken, the Chairman asked for a resolution to exclude Press and public. Mr Hayes demurred, so the items were taken, including a progress report on the 20 new houses by the Surveyor which revealed a shortage of bricklayers. The other items related to various payments and mortgages.

The only item taken after the Press and public had left was consideration of plans submitted.

RETIREMENT

Mr J. Trevor Ellis, who has been Rating Officer to the Council since 1932 will be retiring on June 18th.

Prior to his appointment as Rating Officer, Mr Ellis was Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Urban District Council.

Women's Interests

Make it a White Whitsuntide

Why not greet Summer in sparkling white? White is fashion's favourite for 1960. It is gay, fresh, becoming; and, with modern washing methods, completely care-free. You can wear pristine white for picnics and parties and keep that new look always.

Wash white dresses, skirts and blouses often. Never allow them to become really soiled. Use a good detergent, such as White Tide (1 rounded tablespoon to 1 gallon of water), and always make sure the powder is completely dissolved before putting in the garment. Wash according to the type of fabric. Rinse thoroughly, then dry. If your dress is cotton, it will probably have a "special finish" (perhaps to make it crease resistant, shrink resistant, or to need less ironing), in which case never use any bleaching solution on stains. Wash carefully, in a White Tide solution and do not rub or twist. Rinse thoroughly and after drying press if necessary on the wrong side with a warm iron. For white nylon, have the washing solution very hot, but never boil and never wash white nylon with any colour but white. Rinse thoroughly, roll in a towel and shake out.

Bacon Scotch Eggs

Most of us accept that the French are past-masters at cookery. But why are they so good? They themselves say that their superb kitchen magic is sheer necessity. Anyone, they say, can cook a fillet steak or a thick chump chop. But it takes a good cook to make an appetising meal from scraps and trimmings.

We, too, can use ingenuity in order to produce good meals from small beginnings. Bacon "pieces" from the odd rasher or two left over will make delicious Bacon Scotch Eggs.

You need:

- 4 hard boiled eggs
- 6-8 ozs. cooked bacon, finely minced
- flour
- 1 beaten egg
- browned bread crumbs (for coating)

Dust the shelled eggs lightly with flour. Divide the minced bacon into 4 portions and mould a portion evenly around each egg. Make sure that the whole egg is enclosed in bacon. Dip each one into beaten egg and coat with bread crumbs. Fry in deep fat until golden brown. Drain well. Cut each egg in half. Serve hot with tomato sauce or cold with salad.

Keeping Paint off the Window-pane

Spring-cleaning often makes it clear that your window-frames need a coat of paint. It isn't easy to avoid getting the paint over glass when doing woodwork. However, an easy way is to smear petroleum jelly on the glass before painting. When this is finished, wipe off any left on the glass.

LLANGOLLEN DEVELOPMENTS ASSOCIATION

The Annual Meeting on Monday, May 2 was presided over by Mr R. Avery, who warmly welcomed Mr and Mrs Gilbert. All members were delighted that Mr Gilbert was well enough to attend, after so long a period of ill-health.

Mr D. L. Cuffin, who had convened the meeting, read the minutes of the previous A.G.M. and also the audited statement of accounts.

The Association has had to pay a considerable sum in Income Tax. In spite of representations made, the Inland Revenue Commissioners would not consider the association as a charitable body, all its gifts having been made to the local authority (not a deserving cause, apparently).

Even so, a good credit balance is in hand.

The Committee was elected, the Annual Meeting declared closed, and the Committee sat to elect officers.

As there was a meeting of the Eisteddfod Executive that night, Mr Emrys Roberts, J.P. was unable to attend, and sent an apology.

Officers elected were as follows:—
President: Mr Gilbert; Chairman: Miss Pugh Jones; Vice Chairman: Mr Hay; Secretary: Mr D. L. Cuffin; Assistant Secretary: Mr Gordon Sherratt. Mr Jones-Griffith, absent owing to illness, was re-elected Hon. Treasurer.

Little did those present think that in a few hours time his illness was to take a severe turn, and that Llangollen would on Wednesday learn of his death. Mr Jones-Griffith had been Hon. Treasurer of the Association since 1947, needless to say, a most capable one, and also a delightful companion to work with in Committee.

This Association is only one of the spheres of Llangollen life from which he will be greatly missed.

OBITUARY

THE LATE MR R. JONES-GRIFFITH.

Mr Jones-Griffith, the news of whose death in hospital early on Wednesday, May 4, occasioned so deep a sense of loss in the town, was the eldest of the four sons of the late Mr and Mrs E. Jones-Griffith of Pwllheli. A younger brother, Mr Iestyn Jones-Griffith, predeceased him in 1947.

While at the Midland Bank, Abergele, Mr Jones-Griffith married Miss Claudia Foulkes-Jones of Corwen. For over twenty years they have lived in Llangollen, earning a warm place in our hearts, and our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs Jones-Griffith in her bereavement.

Mr Jones-Griffith had indentified himself with many movements in Llangollen, usually as Hon. Treasurer, in which capacity he had few equals. The International Eisteddfod had won his allegiance from the start and he gave uncounted time and energy to it. He was now its Hon. Secretary, and after his expected retirement from the Bank in June, he was looking forward to making it the chief occupation of his leisure.

Kind, reassuring, humorous and reliable, how many friends and movements will be for ever grateful to his memory.

The funeral took place on Saturday, May 7th. A Service was conducted at his home, Dalesford, at 9.45 a.m. by the Revs. Aled Williams, H. Jones-Davies and G. M. Gruffydd. The Service at Colwyn Bay Crematorium was conducted by the Rev G. Aled Williams.

The mourners were Mrs C. Jones-Griffith (widow); Mr and Mrs Wm. Jones-Griffith, Bangor; Mr and Mrs I. Jones-Griffith, Conway; Mrs Iestyn Jones-Griffith, Prestatyn (brothers, and sisters-in-law); Messrs Timothy and Michael Jones-Griffith (nephews); Miss C. Jones, Pwllheli and Captain J. Jones, Nefyn (cousins); Miss Delia Ffoulkes-Jones, Corwen; Mr and Mrs Haydn Ffoulkes-Jones, Llangollen (niece and nephew); Mr Evans Edwards and Mr Hugh Edwards, Betws G.G.; Mr Norman Humphreys, Druid (cousins); Mr and Mrs Richard Hughes, Machynlleth; Mr and Mrs Iorwerth Hughes, Liverpool; Mr Wm. Hughes, Llandrillo; Mr Merfyn Morgan, Prestatyn (friends); Colleagues in the Midland Bank: Mr A. C. Rowlands, Llangollen; Mr T. H. Hughes, Llanrhaeadr, Y.M.; Mr D. A. W. Williams, Oswestry; Mr Rees of Shrewsbury; Mr Vincent, Colwyn Bay; Mr E. Roberts, Ruthin; Mr G. S. Williams and Mr and Mrs Cledwyn Williams. Representing the International Eisteddfod, Mr J. Rhys Roberts, Mr W. S. Gwynn Williams, Mr Trevor Lewis, Mr A. G. Reeves; Mr W. Lowe (XX Club); Mr J. Iorwerth Roberts; Mr Arthur Hughes; Mr J. Trevor Ellis; Mr R. W. Richards; Mr J. O. Jones and Mr Brian Jones; Dr G. F. Benjamin and Coun K. A. Mann.

Mr Emrys Roberts, who would in any case have been present as Vice-Chairman of the Eisteddfod Council, was, with Mr D. B. Davies, in charge of the funeral arrangements.

THE LIBRARIANS' CONFERENCE

The Wales and Monmouth Library Authorities' delegates thoroughly enjoyed their visit to Llangollen and their welcome was all that could be desired.

Many praised the Town Hall, admiring the room, and the flowers were quite up to Eisteddfod standard. Very beautiful was the effect of calceolarias along the footlights, and the three large groups of Iceland poppies backed by common fern fanned out against the embroidered green tablecloth hiding the solidity of the anteroom table on which reposed the tape recorder, taking in all the words of wit and wisdom uttered.

The first of these was Mr Miller's speech of welcome on Thursday morning. He was eloquent about the value of reading and freedom of thought, and his address was commented on at the Reception and Tea given the same afternoon at the Royal Hotel. The arrangements for that were perfect, too. There was plenty of room, plenty of seats and plenty of good things to eat. And plenty of pleasant conversation.

Ald. T. O. Jones, Chairman of the Denbighshire County Library Committee, proposed a vote of thanks to Coun. Miller and Mr

Newman, of Penbroke, seconded the motion.

Points from the Sessions: Mr E. D. Jones, Librarian of the National Library of Wales, startled us by saying it would take him 4,000 years to read all the books housed at Aberystwyth, at the rate of one book a day! (Detailed censorship is therefore not among his duties!)

"You Librarians" he said "hate to have your shelves full and your books ignored; books for us (at the N.L.W.) are for preservation and the less they are handled, the more we are pleased."

R.S.P.C.A. ANNUAL MEETING

This was held at the Royal Hotel last Tuesday. Mr J. H. Pierce, one of the three vice-presidents, was in the chair.

The Statement of Accounts for the Llangollen, Chirk, Glyn and Trevor Division of the R.S.P.C.A. was presented by Mr I. W. Hughes, Hillcrest, Llangollen.

Mr T. K. Butler had kindly audited it. To save repetition of items dealt with in the Secretary's Report we merely report that balances in hand at the Bank at Dec. 31, 1959, were £156/11/5 on current account and £313/2/0 on deposit.

Mrs May, of Dolywern, the Hon. Secretary, gave her report as follows:—

"The continued readiness of Mr Oswald S. Sharratt to act as our President, and of Mrs R. W. Richards, Major Archer, Mr J. H. Pierce and Mr Waltho to act as Vice Presidents, is a matter on which we can congratulate ourselves. It was with much sorrow that we learned of Mr Waltho's decease. He rendered excellent service to our Society in many ways, and our collecting Spaniel, placed outside his shop, had become a Llangollen landmark.

In the course of the year, Mrs Ursula F. Seddall, for several years our Honorary Secretary, found that she was unable to continue in office, and it was with great regret that her resignation was accepted. Mrs Seddall proved a devoted and conscientious secretary, and the Society is much indebted to her.

Under the chairmanship of Mr Meurig Jones, work in the division has gone well.

Inspector's Report: Inspector Start, our full-time Inspector, works long hours to good purpose, visiting slaughterhouses, patrolling markets, sheep sales, agricultural shows and gymkhanas.

He investigated 19 complaints of cruelty, administering five verbal cautions and reporting three to Headquarters, who sent a monition in one case and brought another before the Magistrates, gaining a conviction. The defendant was fined £5 with six guineas costs.

137 cats, 34 dogs, 9 birds and one sheep were humanely destroyed. Homes were found for seven dogs and one cat.

Subscribers: We are very grateful to all annual subscribers, and would warmly welcome new ones of any amount from 2/6 upwards. Subscriptions may be paid to the Hon. Secretary, Hon. Auxiliary Secretaries or any authorised collector.

Collecting Boxes: A record sum of £107/6/2 was obtained from collecting boxes in licensed premises, hotels, cafes, shops etc in the divisional area, and we thank most heartily all who looked after our boxes.

Flag Days and House to House Collections: These yielded £109/3/4 and we are very grateful to our collectors, flag sellers, and all others who rendered excellent help.

Finance: The sum of £94/11/11 was forwarded to Headquarters towards the maintenance of our Inspector in 1959, but a further payment of £50 was made early this year. The second item has not been included in the Balance Sheet for 1959.

Thanks: To the Magistrates and Learned Clerk, the Chief Constable and Police of all ranks, the Veterinary Surgeons, School Teachers and Pupils, Proprietors and Shopkeepers, the Staff at Headquarters, Branch Organisers, R.S.P.C.A. Inspectors and the kind hearted and generous public, we tender our warmest thanks."

Officers and Committee are as follows:— President: Mr Oswald S. Sharratt, Bron Heulog, Llangollen; Vice-Presidents: Mrs R. W. Richards, Mr J. H. Pierce, Major R. S. Archer; Chairman: Mr Meurig Jones, M.Sc., F.R.G.S., Grammar School House; Hon. Treasurer: Mr I. W. Hughes, National Provincial Bank; Hon. WEDDINGS

LARGE—RICHARDS

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday morning, June 4th in Llangollen Parish Church.

The bridegroom was Mr Graham Large, only son of Mrs Williams, Penycae and of the late Mr Large of Ruabon; his bride was Miss Georgina Richards, only daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward Richards, 5 Pengwern.

The Rev W. C. Dickin, of Chirk officiated and Mr E. O. G. Archer was at the organ.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white Nottingham lace over net and nylon the skirt having cut-away ruched side panels. Her shoulder length veil was held by a wreath of orange blossom and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

Her friends, Miss Iola Williams, of Penycae, was chief bridesmaid. She wore a short gown of pink flock nylon. Of the 'other four bridesmaids Miss Kathleen Evans (cousin) and Miss Doreen Edwards had gowns of spotted blue nylon, trimmed with long pink bows, and the younger bridesmaids, Miss Susan Evans (bride's cousin) and Miss Susan Williams (groom's half-sister) wore long Kate Greenaway frocks in pink nylon. All five bridesmaids wore floral wreaths as head-dresses and carried bouquets of mixed sweet peas.

The best man was Mr Barry Irving of Penycae, and the bride's three brothers, Messers Roy, David and Watkin Richards were the ushers.

The bride's parents gave a reception in Welfare House. The eighty guests included a large number of children who were accommodated in the adjoining Scout Room, for Welfare House itself could never have held so many! Amid the good wishes of many friends, Mr and Mrs Large left to spend their honeymoon at Llandudno, the bride travelling in a beige dress and long coat of lime green.

On their return Mr and Mrs Large will reside in Russell Road, Cefn. The bride is employed at Dobson and Crowther's and Mr Large is at Hafod Colliery.

JONES—MORRIS

On the afternoon of Whit Monday, June 6th, the marriage was solemnised in Llangedwyn Parish Church of Mr Glynne Parry Jones, only son of Mr and Mrs T. E. Jones, Queen St., Llangollen and Miss Barbara Winifred Morris, youngest daughter of Mrs Morris and the late Mr E. Charles Morris of Maestanyglydwen, Llangedwyn.

The Rev Wheldon Griffith, former Vicar of Llangedwyn and now Vicar of Northop, officiated and he was assisted by the Rev R. H. Jones, the present Vicar of Llangedwyn.

Mr E. O. G. Archer, organist at Llangollen Parish Church, was the organist, a position which the bride herself occupied right up to Whit-sunday night.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr Alan Morris, wore a gown of white Nottingham lace over taffeta and her full length veil was held by a coronet of pearls. Her bouquet was composed of white carnations, lilies of the valley and small white gladioli.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Morris, Miss Ann Williams, Mold (cousin); Miss Dorothy Morris (cousin); and Miss Ann Hawley Roberts, Llangollen (the groom's cousin).

All four wore long gowns of guardsman red slipper satin, with head-dress of fresh flowers and carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

The duties of best man were carried out by Mr Robert Readie of Windermere, formerly of Llangollen, and the ushers were Mr John Foulkes-Jones, Mr John Robinson, and Mr Elwyn Parry Jones.

A reception was held at the Wynn-stay Hotel, Oswestry, after which the happy pair left for Southampton where they embarked for a Mediterranean cruise.

On their return they will reside at Coedfryn, Llangollen.

U.D.C. MAY 31

The ordinary Council Meeting, usually held on the first Tuesday in the month, was held on the 31st May, Mr Miller presiding.

Before commencing business, Mr Miller paid a tribute to Mr J. Trevor Ellis, who was attending the council meeting for the last time as one of its officials. He thanked him for his loyalty and devotion to duty as Rating Officer and Collector over an extensive period.

Mr Mann seconded the motion saying that Mr Ellis always put the interests of Llangollen first in all his activities.

The Clerk endorsed the Chairman's remarks. He had worked with Mr Ellis for 18 years out of the 26 that he had been Rating Officer, and it was a great pleasure to him to express appreciation of his co-operation on his own behalf and of his fellow officials.

Mr Ellis thanked them all for their kind remarks. If there was ever any occasion in the future when he could help, he would be glad to do so.

The Minutes of the previous ordinary meeting and of the Annual Meeting were adopted.

Mr Ellis read the annual statement of the rates collections.

The Clerk read the annual balance sheet of the Council, which was adopted for audit.

The Minister of Education had approved the taking over of Llangollen Public Library by the Denbighshire C.C. and the deed of transfer was thereupon signed and sealed.

Authority was given to sign the contract, at District Valuer's price, for the purchase of land at Llandyn for refuse disposal.

The progress reports of the Sewerage Scheme was read. The average labour force employed now is 92 men.

Mr Fawcett read the progress report for the 20 houses at Maes Pengwern. The bricklaying difficulty had been overcome and the first group of houses were bricked up to ground floor windows.

Two special applications for Town Hall bookings for Dances were submitted.

The Operatic Society wished to book four Saturday evenings in the year. It was decided to inform them that the rule was that no organisation could book more than one Saturday night at a time, and that their application could therefore not be entertained.

An application for a Saturday night Dance by the R.O.A.B. caused a discussion, which elicited a quite dramatic "No Sir" to Mr Mann's contention that the R.O.A.B. was in the same class as the organisations usually granted Saturday Dances for profit.

Eventually their application was granted.

The B.M.M.S. submitted their summer Time-Table.

The Clerk announced that there would be a Public Enquiry re the building of bungalows at Ystrad on July 7th.

R.A.F.A.

Wrexham v. Llangollen

A friendly football match was played on the Recreation Field between Wrexham R.A.F.A. and Llangollen R.A.F.A. on Saturday, May 28th

The match was enjoyed by players and spectators alike. Both teams put up a good fight, with Wrexham pulling up from 5-1 at half time to 5-4 at the end. Llangollen led from the first.

The goal keepers, T. Wilson and B. Simon, did well, with good saves during the match. Other good players were P. Kilgour, G. Pilbeam, D. Williams and A. Norbury (for Llangollen), and R. Thomas, P. Dutton and T. Wynn for Wrexham.

The evening ended with a friendly darts match and a dance in the R.A.F.A. Club Room.

THE YSTRAD INQUIRY

Submission by Mr Edward Brinley, Miller, Chairman of the Llangollen Urban District Council

The Llangollen Urban District Council is unanimous in its support of the appeal by Mr W. A. Burrows against the refusal of the Denbighshire County Council as Local Planning Authority to permit the proposed development of erection of bungalows at Ystrad, Llangollen.

The Council finds itself quite unable to accept as valid or supportable either of the stated grounds of refusal.

There is already an old established community within close proximity to the proposed development and it is residential in character to a large extent. There is every evidence that the inhabitants of this area have found it easy and convenient to participate in the cultural and social life of the town of Llangollen. A number of them have made and are making valuable and effective contributions to the various local institutions. Postal facilities are available at Berwyn and excellent delivery services are offered by the business houses of the town. The route is served daily by the Corwen-Llangollen bus service operated by Crosville Motor Services Ltd., and the site is well within the area of the Llangollen Schools district.

The distance between the site of the proposed development and the main town centre is less than that obtaining in a number of other districts of the area covered by the Local Authority where recent development has been permitted. On the contention that the proposal would constitute ribbon development, the Council would urge the Inquiry to consider the importance of the general submission that the purpose of Planning legislation, broadly stated, is that the best possible use should be made of what is available. In view of all the variations which are encountered, Planning cannot be said to be an exact science and the term "ribbon development" cannot fairly be strictly defined. In a valley of the nature of the Dee Valley all development would be strangled if the same definition were applied as can rightly be employed in flat and expansive areas.

The Council feels even more strongly that the refusal on the grounds of traffic hazards is both inequitable and inconsistent. It will be recalled that a previous inquiry on appeal against refusal to permit development of the same site for caravan occupation, found in favour of the appellant to the extent that the development of part of the site for the stationing of twenty-five caravans was allowed by the Minister in his acceptance of the Inspector's findings. The Council submits that, in the case of that development, the extent to which there would be use of access was largely incalculable and would be greatest during peak traffic times and seasons. In the case of residential development, it will be largely calculable, would be likely to be less overall, and would surely be less heavy during the holiday season.

The interventions of the Ministry of Transport with what amount to directed refusals in so many cases of proposed development is surely a matter of widespread concern and apprehension, particularly to housing Authorities. The interests of fast-moving traffic ought not to outweigh the urgency and utter necessity of housing projects, the latter of which must surely make a more lasting and effective contribution to the communal good than much of the road traffic with which the Ministry of Transport is concerned.

WIDENING OF LLANGOLLEN BRIDGE

At the last Council meeting Mr Scott Archer made the following statement:

"The proposal by the County Council and the Ministry of Transport is to remove the upstream facing, widen the bridge by a 6ft. footpath, and replace the facing stone.

My objections to this plan are that it will only aggravate, by encouraging increased traffic, the major causes of congestion which are Castle Street and the Junction with the A5 at the Traffic Lights;

Congestion in Castle street, which is 24ft. wide arises from tradesmen's vehicles—which cannot very well be prohibited without serious inconvenience to the trade of the street:

Congestion at the Lights is probably insoluble owing to the lack of space for an island.

The alternative to this proposal is to build a new bridge about half a mile downstream from the present bridge—an alternative plan that has already been considered and probably been rejected on grounds of cost.

The advantages in favour of this alternative plan are:

(a) All heavy traffic can be directed to cross the Dee by this route — no congestion arises in Castle Street or on the bridge from cars, for the bridge is 16ft. wide.

(b) Traffic islands at both ends of the new bridge would permit speedier traffic infiltration — and, preferably by the direction of W. bound traffic up Hall St. in addition, congestion at the Lights would be eliminated.

(c) All Bus and Coach Services would use the new bridge and terminate in Market St. or the Market thus eliminating the very dangerous corner beyond the foot of Wharf Hill, as regards the half-hourly Crosville Service.

Mr Smith and Mr Bennett both contended that the problem on Llangollen Bridge is primarily a pedestrian problem. Mrs Price supported this view from daily experience!

Mr Smith said that the congestion in Castle St. would be much less if Castle St. tradesmen did not park their cars in the street. Furthermore there was already too much traffic on the A5. The Council had objected to the New Fire Station on that score, and a bridge terminating near the foot of Birch Hill would bring traffic on to Queens St. and Regent St.

THE 1960 EISTEDDFOD

SATURDAY, JULY 9

Early in the morning, at half past seven to be precise, groups of children were looking over the cutwaters into the Dee, doubtless on their way to breakfast after sleeping in one of Llangollen's Schools. And all along Abbey Road went the phalanxes of maroon, blue, green blazers, varied by a group in elegant blue velveteen jackets both for boys and girls.

In the field between the duck boards and the canvas of the Competitors' tent, sat the tiny little girls and boys of Scunthorpe, girls in spotless blue and white print, boys in blue blazers. "Where did you sleep last night?" "In a school" "In the town" "No, in Glyndyfrdwy." "And where did you have breakfast?" "We came into town." And through a prelim and on to the stage to captivate the huge audience.

When Dr Wisemann adjudicated his remarks matched the feelings of the audience. "Very small, very lovely, happy and sang naturally, with fine phrasing."

Bucknall School, Stoke-on-Trent were well balanced said Dr Wiseman, and their rhythm easy—2nd. prize was awarded.

Blackpool Girls' rendering of "Arise, Sweet Messenger" was quite beautiful, and they of course got first prize, having already taken a first prize on Thursday in the Youth Choir's Competition.

It is noteworthy that both second and third prizewinners had been subjected to a preliminary test. Another Choir which got the stage after the prelim. was Victoria School, Wrexham and they too did very well, tying with the Minden Children and Nettleswell in 6th position. Two local choirs occupied the 4th and 5th positions, namely Overleigh Boys and Oswestry Girls.

SIR THOMAS ARMSTRONG

At the very end of the Eisteddfod we had one of the best things of the week—Sir Thomas Armstrong giving the adjudication on the Male Choirs Competition.

His mellifluous lilting voice raced on from phrase to phrase. "There are technical terms for musical facts—the audience generally knows the facts, the adjudicator supplies the terms. And what an audience in this tent—well a kind of tent—a magnificent concourse of men and women, a sum of human achievement, feeling and enthusiasm. And what for? To make Music. Music is its own purpose, like the flowers in its loveliness. Its value is not in its complexity, or its loudness but in its truth, both of sound and of thinking."

Sir Thomas said Colne Valley (1st prize) were firm but not rough, their Welsh in "Dychwelyd" was excellent and their choice "The Tide Falls" very moving.

Pisa, Italy (2nd prize) gave a magnificently moulded opening to the Palestrina and their tone was intimate, but the second set piece was less suited to them. Their third song shed a new light on what a large body of men can do.

The Welsh Guards were uniformly (!) loud in the Palestrina, and their "Go, Lovely Rose" had less romance than we thought might be. (3rd prize).

Rossendale, winners in previous years did not begin well but achieved striking unanimity later. Suffered from occasional hardness of tone.

One mark below were Froncyllte. Very well rehearsed, clarity, definition and a personal touch. They were at their best in "Mordaith Cariad." (Hopkin Evans).

The Norwegians, who had left their sub-arctic village ten miles north of Bergen for the first time, were placed next. They had a lighter tone and did not try for effect. It was like the playing of a violin, with a reserve of tone.

The Maltese were conducted by Joseph Sammut who has been here before working with the National Youth Orchestra. They began a little flat but were extremely well together: clear, decisive, powerful, but not very flexible.

TURKISH DELIGHT

Last Saturday, Mr J. Rhys Roberts received a personal letter of thanks from His Excellency the Turkish Ambassador, thanking him for the welcome received by him and his compatriots at the Eisteddfod. Moreover, his attache wrote letters of appreciation to the Chairmen of the Hospitality, Grounds and other sub-Committees.

Movietone News had been instructed to make a film of the Turkish dancers' visit here and to fly a copy to Ankara.

LLANTYSILIO W.I.

The June meeting of the Llantysilio W.I. was presided over by Mrs Emrys Davies. A special feature of the evening was a very interesting report on the A.G.M. in London given by Mrs Eluned Evans. This was followed by a talk on Colour and design in the Home given by a representative of Browns' of Chester. Social time took the form of "Tea and a Chat." During the course of the evening preparations for the "Bring and Buy Sale" were discussed. The sale was held on June 28th and proved a great success. It was opened by Mrs Hubbard who graciously presented a cheque. Stallholders and tea-makers were kept very busy and special thanks were offered to Dr and Mrs Whiting who so kindly allowed their beautiful garden to be used for the occasion.

OBITUARY

THE LATE MISS GWYNETH VAUGHAN JONES

We have much Grammar School news in hand which we hope to find space for next week, but we must refer to the sorrow and loss sustained through the death of their music Teacher, which so saddened the end of term.

Miss Vaughan Jones was the only daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Hugh Jones of Corwen. She was appointed to our staff in the summer of 1958, and a few weeks later her mother was taken seriously ill. Her devotion to her mother perhaps prevented her attending to her own state of health, but during the autumn term, she made her pupils "Sing like Angels" and we heard the result when she conducted the Carol Service in the Town Hall at Christmas, 1958.

She was in hospital the next term, but returned to school towards the end of the summer term, 1959.

Not so, this summer. Her illness returned with severity, and she died on July 2nd, at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr and Mrs Ellis, The Stores, Corwen, which had been her home also since her mother's death, for they showed the utmost devotion to their niece.

Miss Vaughan Jones was a gifted musician, her nature was sensitive to every form of beauty, she was an excellent tennis player; she appreciated deeply the concern and friendship shown to her by the Headmaster, staff and pupils of Llangollen School in whose happy atmosphere she so ardently desired to give service, as she had previously done at Hawarden School and village, whose musical traditions were so congenial to her.

The funeral took place privately at Corwen on July 5th. The Headmaster, Miss M. Glynne Davies and Mr H. Hughes Roberts represented the School.

Cold Roast for Summer Parties

Giving a summer dinner party? Then you may think of something cool, possibly a buffet served out of doors. This can be attractive and economical if you use a shoulder of New Zealand Lamb. Roast this the day before the party, stuff and leave to cool overnight. Do not cut until just before the guests arrive, so that the succulent juices are not lost. Cooking the day before also gives the hostess more time to relax on the day of the party. Ask the butcher to bone a shoulder of New Zealand lamb and stuff it with a mixture as follows: Fry lightly in butter $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. of finely chopped onions and three or four large chopped mushrooms. Mix in a spoonful of flour and enough milk to bind the mixture together loosely. Season with salt and pepper and a touch of grated nutmeg. Heat the mixture in a small pan until it boils to remove any excess moisture. Allow to cool and stuff this into the T-shaped cavity in the shoulder. Put the stuffed shoulder in a large pan and brown all over by basting with butter, and season to taste. Bake in a moderate oven for an hour and a half and leave to get cold before serving.

Wealth Wise

Do you know that a £1 Premium Savings Bond can now win you £5,000? This is one of the exciting prospects revealed in the Budget proposals which included new and attractive terms for this popular form of National Savings. From November there will be more and bigger prizes with greater chances of winning them. To gain these benefits you have only to hold on to your Bonds, or buy new ones. Good news, too, for impatient souls is that the six month waiting period before bonds are eligible for a prize has been cut to three months. To encourage an all-out savings drive the maximum holding of Premium Bonds has been raised to £800—the limit has also been raised for Savings Certificates and Defence Bonds. You'll get a three-way stretch for your savings with any of these whether you prefer high interest returns or the chance of cash prizes from £25 to £5,000. The choice is yours. Here's wealth!

Sunbathing

Enjoy the sun and make the most of every moment of it by sunbathing to full advantage. Never go out into the sun for more than a few minutes without first applying a protective lotion to all exposed parts of your body. More of your body will be exposed than usual, so pay attention to details. Your feet will be on show so toenails should be scrubbed and neatly shaped and hard skin removed. Massage your ankles with hand-cream to remove any roughness caused by Winter winds. As sun and salt dull the hair it is advisable to wear a beach-hat or cotton headscarf while sunbathing.

AT THE CONFERENCE

The Methodist Conference met at the Philharmonic Hall, Liverpool, the same week as the Llangollen Eisteddfod. The Rev G. M. Gruffydd attended, and so did Mr H. Glynne Jones for a couple of days. Mrs Gruffydd, Mrs Llew Evans and Mrs Gwynn Davies, Y Llyn, were there on the Thursday helping with hospitality arrangements together with other ladies from each of the First North Wales District Circuits.

AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Coun. and Mrs E. B. Miller were among the guests at the Garden Party given at the Palace last Thursday by H.M. the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh.

Mrs Miller tells us the Queen looked charming in a rose pink silk two piece suit and wide brimmed hat to match. With her were the Duke—the Queen Mother—the Duchess of Kent—the young Duke of Kent—the Earl and Countess of Harewood—and the Princess Royal.

The weather was kind—they had to open umbrellas only once!

THE NATIONAL EISTEDDFOD

The Royal Welsh Show at Welshpool has been a great success, after much had luck in recent years, and it looks as though the National Eisteddfod at Cardiff next week will also be a great success.

The presence of H.M. the Queen and the initiation of the Duke of Edinburgh into the Gorsedd, will make history.

Among those invited to the Garden Party given for the royal visitors is the Rev J. W. Worthington, Chairman of the Welsh Council of Boys Clubs.

PROPOSED CHILDREN'S CHOIR

Michael Daniels writes to us saying that it is so long since Llangollen itself was represented in any of the choral events at the International Eisteddfod that he hopes 1961 will see a children's choir competing.

Last March, several people asked him if one could be formed to compete this year, but of course March was too late to think of doing so. But Michael hopes to go ahead with plans this coming autumn. If parents are willing to support the venture by sending their children for auditions early in September there would be a good chance of getting a choir into shape.

Also needed will be an accompanist and a secretary. Anyone willing to undertake these duties please contact Michael as soon as possible.

A small weekly subscription, 3d. or 6d. will be required to pay for rehearsal room and music.

Please give this project your full support. Michael Daniels' address is, Wesley House, Castle Street.

AT THE ROYAL WELSH

Janet Edwards, Llandyn, won first prize at Welshpool in the Hack Riding Class.

Janet rode a horse which she herself had broken in.

Last year her younger sister won first prize in a Pony Class at the Royal Welsh Show at Port Talbot. This week both are competing in the Royal Lancashire Show at Blackpool.

SUPREME FLORAL AWARD GOES TO PONTFADOG

Also going to Blackpool yesterday was Mrs Iona Trefor Jones, Tŷ Isa, Pontfadog, to judge the floral display classes at the Royal Lancs. Show.

Last Tuesday she won the supreme award of the premier floral art exhibition staged at the Royal Horticultural Hall, London. This competitive show is organised by the Commonwealth Association of Floral Art Societies, and included displays and competitive entries, not only from Britain and the Commonwealth but also from France and Italy. Commonwealth countries flowers were flown over here and Floral Art Societies in this country were responsible for their arrangement. The north west group of societies which includes the Oswestry and District F.A.S. founded by Mrs Jones, was responsible for Pakistan's exhibit.

In individual competitions Mrs Jones won the premier award. The display title was "Sophistication" and Mrs Jones used flowers and plants in tones of brown and grey (succulants for the grey) grouped around a bronze figure. She was awarded a gold medal and diploma and a Wedgewood urn in Queen's ware in the classic style which becomes her personal property.

Mrs Jones, who by the way, can be heard regularly in the B.B.C.'s Welsh programme "Gwraig y Tŷ" engaged on a book in Welsh on Floral Art designed to interest children.

Her own son and daughter find their poetry in movement—her son Malcolm in horse leaping and his young sister in the ballet.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN

The Annual Meeting of the Llangollen Branch was held on Tuesday, June 28th at Welfare House, Mrs. Seddall presiding and entertaining the members to tea.

Miss Barlow presented the statement of accounts, which showed a satisfactory, though small, balance in hand.

Mr S. C. Richards was thanked for auditing the account and kindly providing typed copies sufficient to share amongst those present.

Mrs Seddall retired from the presidency with warmest thanks of the members for her devoted services, and Mrs Shepherdson, the Glen, was unanimously elected to take her place.

Miss Barlow was elected Hon. Treasurer and Miss Pugh Jones and Mrs T. J. Price Hon. Secretaries.

The three new committee members elected were Miss Anderson, Froncysyllte, Mrs Howard Edwards, Mrs Jones Griffith.

A suggested trip to Plas Mawr, Conway, and Gwydir will be further discussed at a Committee meeting tonight. Also the visit of the National President N.C.W. to Denbigh on Oct 4th and a projected one day Conference here in February next.

GLYNDYFRDWY

We were pleased to see Mr and Mrs T. F. Robinson passing through Llangollen last Saturday to visit Glyndyfrdwy, which was their home for so many years.

Their daughter Barbara, now Mrs Davies, has a one year old daughter. Mr and Mrs Davies and the little girl are now back in Manchester, where Mrs Davies is taking up her singing again, after unfortunately losing her voice two years ago when studying in Berlin. We wish her every success after that unfortunate outcome of winning the Kathleen Ferrier Prize.

DOMINION VISITORS

Miss Kitty Edwards, formerly of Cynwyd, is over from New Zealand, staying with her cousins, Mr and Mrs E. Parry Roberts. After an absence of 20 years, she came in time for the Eisteddfod and though thoroughly enjoying the renewal of old friendships, she is returning to New Zealand at the end of the summer.

Mrs Eva Jones, with her adopted daughter Janet, has arrived from Canada for a visit to her parents, the Rev and Mrs J. W. Worthington.

DARBY AND JOAN

Forty-three members of the Darby and Joan Club enjoyed a splendid day's outing at Rhyl last Thursday and Rhyl lived up to its reputation as "sunny" though it rained heavily here and elsewhere. The Promenade and the Floral Hall were the chief attractions and they enjoyed a high tea before leaving for home. W.V.S. Members accompanied them.

LLANGOLLEN GIRL GUIDES

Llangollen Girl Guides took part in the 50 yrs. Jubilee Pageant held at the Parciau, Wrexham, on Sat., July 16th. Caroline Ambrose, Leader of the Daffodil Patrol, carried the Company's colours. Lady Margaret Myddleton, County Commissioner, also a guest Commissioner from New Zealand, took the Salute. Several guests were invited and afterwards entertained to tea.

Llangollen Historical Exhibition. 31st August to 10th September, 1960

Mr and Mrs Arthur Williams, who have been here since 1946, left Llangollen last Wednesday for their new home at Colwyn Bay. Mr Williams is retiring from the Postal Service.

The staff of Llangollen Post Office together with members of the Engineering Staff held a Social at the Post Office the evening preceeding Mr. Williams' departure, when Mr Ivor Williams presented him with a cheque subscribed to by Llangollen Rhewl, Pentredwr and Berwyn postal staffs. Mr Burrows and Mr Trevor Roberts (Engineering Staff) also spoke appreciatively of Mr Williams' services in Llangollen.

Mrs Williams will be very much missed in Llangollen where her services assisting the District Nurse have been so much appreciated.

The new Postmaster will be Mr D. E. Williams of Llanrwst. He comes here mid-August; till then, Mr Ivor Williams is Acting-Postmaster.

Women's Interests

Englishmen's Appearance— Are Women to Blame?

Natalie Donay, a top executive with Charles of the Ritz in New York, seen above explaining her views to Henry Garnett, Divisional Director of Gillette, thinks that the impeccably groomed Englishman is a figure of the past—and that English women are to blame. In London on a visit, she said: "American women like their men compulsively clean and gorgeously groomed. They get them that way, by fair means or foul. What is needed to help men present their most attractive faces to the world is concerted, if unobtrusive female persuasion. This can make all the difference between a man you'd rather not be seen with and a man you don't trust out alone.

"I should say that a clean shave comes in at a dead-heat with a clean shirt for the most important first impression about a man and if you want to get a man properly shaved, provide him with a supply of the new Blue Gillette Extra blades and make sure he uses them. If necessary, short-circuit his electric shaver. Apart from giving the men a wonderfully smooth shave, this new Gillette blade has also had an immediate success with women at home, who use razors more openly than you do. We find the new blade is a complete joy to use and a marvellous boon for a tedious chore."

Braemar Autumn Collection 1960

A completely different approach is the keynote of the new Braemar Autumn collection, shown in London this week. New levels of interest have been found for cashmere. 'Tweed textures' and a cushra stitch forming chequer-board squares were among the designs shown. The new promotion colours are Fine Gold, London Brown, Prussia Blue, Copper Rose and Clover. The handle of the single ply super lambswool is almost as soft and gentle as cashmere. The highlight of the lambswool designs is a new twinset. Called Knightsbridge, it has a square necked jumper, a jacket cardigan with collar and revers and bracelet length sleeves. The line is relaxed and easy, the edges of both jumper and cardigan have a narrow hem, so that the garments lie gently in place and cannot ride up or cling. Skirts in lambswool are another interesting new feature. Knitted-in pleats prevent stretching and the skirts are so designed that they can be turned round to avoid seating. Two-way sizing, two lengths, twenty-four colours and an extremely modest price place these skirts in a class apart. Worn with the Knightsbridge twinset, they make possible a most attractive three-piece suit for under £11.

From this Collection the Council of Industrial Design chose three out of the four garments which will represent Scottish knitwear in the British Government's Exhibit at the Canadian National Exhibition to be held in Toronto in August and September this year.

Georgian Silver for Princess Margaret

Princess Margaret's wedding presents were predominantly silver and nearly all of them were Georgian in period. They ranged from a magnificent silver dinner service and silver-gilt dessert service, in the old English pattern—the gift of the City of London Corporation—to a pair of Georgian silver candlesticks for which the 8,000 children in Dr. Barnardo's Homes each contributed one penny.

PENTREDWR W.I.

The monthly meeting was held at "Gwenallt" by courtesy of Mrs D. B. Davies. This isn't the first time Mrs Davies has welcomed the members to her home and we were all prepared for a very pleasant evening. After the business was concluded a Bring and Buy Sale was held. Unfortunately the inclement weather prevented this from being held in the garden as was originally intended, but business was brisk indoors. The sale realised the sum of £7. 16s. 0d.

After the tea interval, Miss Joan Davies entertained us all with a film show—pictures she had taken of family and friends, local views and some very fine and interesting shots of the International Eisteddfod. Everybody enjoyed this novel entertainment and showed appreciation by the keen interest taken throughout. The President, Miss F. W. Upson thanked Mrs and Miss Davies for their kind hospitality and the efforts they had both made to make our visit happy and memorable. Mrs R. L. Evans won the prize for a very attractive spray of flowers.

Tea hostesses were Mrs Williams, Tŷ, Canol, Mrs James and Miss A. Upson.

PRESENTATION TO MR J. TREVOR ELLIS

At Morris's Cafe, on Friday evening, August 12th., Coun. and Mrs E. B. Miller entertained members and officials of the Council and their wives to meet Mr and Mrs J. Trevor Ellis.

As a mark of esteem and recognition of his long service to the town as Rating Officer from which position he retired last June, Mr. Ellis was presented with a travelling clock and a cheque.

Mrs Ellis was presented with a very beautiful bouquet of flowers.

The congratulatory speeches were made by Mr H. Glynne Jones, Mr E. Ellis Roberts and Coun. Miller, who made the presentation.

CRICKET

In their last league match of the season Llangollen defeated Gwersyllt by 111 runs. Llangollen, batting first, scored 143 for seven, the highlight of the innings was a fine stand of 61 for the third wicket, between J. Evans, who scored 49 and H. Roberts, who made 37. W. Hughes also batted well to score 21.

The Llangollen bowlers always held the upper hand during the Gwersyllt innings and the visitors were finally dismissed for 32. C. Pritchard took four wickets for 14 runs, J. Pilbeam three for eight, and H. Rawles two for eight.

WEDDING

BRERETON—NEVIN

On Saturday, Aug. 6th at St. George's Church, Everton, at four o'clock in the afternoon, the marriage took place of Mr Ronald Anthony Brereton, only son of Mr and Mrs R. Brereton, 109, Pengwern and Miss Joyce Nevin, second daughter of Mr and Mrs G. A. Nevin of Everton, Liverpool.

The Rev R. D. Rodgers officiated and the service was choral.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown in crinoline style, tiered, of Swiss lace and nylon, with scalloped neckline and long sleeves. Her circular veil was held by a small diamante crown on a circleft of white petals. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The chief bridesmaid was Miss Rene Jones. Her lemon Flock Nylon Dress had a jersey nylon collar falling in two streamers at the back. Her head-dress was white and her bouquet composed of orchids.

Miss Beryl Nevin (bride's sister) and Miss Trina Perriton (groom's sister) also wore short gowns of lemon flock nylon, the skirts cut very full. They carried bouquets of sweet peas.

The younger bridesmaids, June Ashcroft (bride's cousin) and Yvonne Sloane (groom's cousin) wore dresses of lilac nylon, full skirted, white rose head-dresses and their posies were of pink rose buds.

The youngest of the retinue, Marilyn Henderson (bride's cousin), wore a dress in the same style but in white, with a small white hat, and she carried a basket of pink rose buds.

The duties of best man were carried out by Mr Wynn Evans, Bryn Newydd, Vivod.

The reception, at which there were 120 adult guests and 20 children, was held at St. Adrian's Church Hall, Walton. There the happy pair cut the three tier horse-shoe wedding cake. The reception was followed by a party, with a band for dancing, for which the bride changed into a short broderie Anglaise dress.

Later, Mr and Mrs Brereton left by the express Crosville service for Caernarvon, where the honeymoon is being spent. The bride travelled in a Navy blue two-piece suit.

On their return they will reside in Liverpool.

Mr and Mrs Brereton were the recipients of very many wedding gifts from relatives and friends.

AT DUFFRYN HOUSE

Among those present at the Garden Party given on the occasion of the visit of H.M. the Queen and H.R.H. the Duke of Edinburgh to Cardiff were Coun. and Mrs. E. B. Miller, Mr and Mrs J. Rhys Roberts, and Mr and Mrs W. S. Gwynn Williams.

Duffryn is a country house possessing large and delightful gardens which is now owned by the Glamorgan County Council, and was a perfect setting for the garden party held in glorious sunshine while the royal visitors moved freely and informally amongst the 3,000 guests.

A TRAGIC FATALITY

Last Tuesday, David Gareth Jones, the ten year old son of Mr and Mrs Jones, formerly of Ceiriog House, Llangollen, went to spend a holiday with his aunt at Ironbridge, Salop. Next day he was drowned in the river Severn.

The garden of the house slopes down to the river and Gareth and his cousin sat fishing on the bank on Wednesday evening. His cousin went back to the house for a few minutes and when he came back Gareth had disappeared. Spectators from the bridge had seen him fall into the river and police were there in a matter of minutes. But to no avail; Gareth seems to have succumbed instantaneously.

Our deepest sympathy is tendered to Mr and Mrs Jones thus suddenly bereaved of their only child.

The funeral took place at St. John's Church, Pontfadog on Saturday, August 13th. Gareth was a pupil at Pontfadog School. Senior Scholars acted as bearers and schoolchildren lined the path to the Church.

Many relatives and friends from Llangollen attended the funeral, and amongst the very numerous flowers sent was a wreath on behalf of members of former Llangollen May Day Committees for which Mrs Jones had worked so assiduously.

Mr and Mrs John Jones wish to express their heartfelt thanks to all relatives and friends for all the kindnesses, expressions of sympathy and floral tributes received in their sudden bereavement.

Women's Interests

A Pie Without Pastry

A new and unusual dish from the Bacon Information Council.

THE PIE CRUST : 1 lb. minced boiled Bacon; 2 oz. breadcrumbs ( $\frac{1}{2}$  cup); 2 tablespoons tomato purée (in about half a cup of water); 1 chopped onion; 1 chopped green pepper; 1 egg.

Mix these ingredients together and press into the bottom of a 9-inch pie tin. Flute the edge, as if it were pastry.

THE FILLING : 1 cup long grain rice (cooked);  $1\frac{1}{4}$  cups grated Swiss Gruyère cheese;  $\frac{1}{2}$  pint tomato sauce; salt to taste.

Combine cooked rice, tomato sauce, 2 tablespoons of grated cheese, salt and pepper, and spoon into the bacon shell. Cover with foil or greaseproof paper. Bake in a moderate oven (350° Mark 4) for 15 minutes. Remove paper, sprinkle remaining cheese over the top and slip under the grill to brown gently. Serves 6.

A Single Rose...

Roses have always been popular as designs for fabrics, china and wallpaper but this year it is the single rose that makes fashion news. Stand out from the crowd by making your sole ornament a single, perfect rose.

For a summer dance, wear a rose in your hair, or on your dress in place of jewellery. For a wedding, make a fascinator from a wisp of inexpensive veiling and trim it with a rose, real or artificial. Pin a tiny rosebud to the hem of your petticoat, or a full-blown flower to your handbag or belt for an extra flavour of summer. As the rose is the most beautiful of flowers, you must be sure you can stand the contrast. Your skin should be scrupulously clean, and glowing, your hair fresh and shining, your make-up light and your lipstick rose-pink. Then you will find yourself distinguished from the crowd, by your air of freshness and summer, and a single, perfect rose.

Take Care of Your Suede Shoes

Suede shoes are very smart but they quickly begin to look shabby unless they are well-cared for. Clean them carefully every time they are worn and never wear them in wet weather. Brush them with a wire or rubber brush, using a circular movement to raise the nap and dislodge dirt. For pale colours, an ordinary india rubber will remove many of the more stubborn marks. When the shoes get older and a little more worn, a liquid cleaner, applied once a week, will restore their smart appearance.

OBITUARY

THE LATE

MR. WILLIAM J. LAMB.—

It was with great regret that we learnt that Mr. Lamb had died last Tuesday afternoon, at the Cottage Hospital where he had been a patient for some weeks, following a long period at the Orthopaedic Hospital.

Mr. Lamb who would have been 86 next Michaelmas Day, is survived by his only daughter, Mrs. Margaret Craddock. Mrs. Lamb predeceased him some fourteen years ago, and for the last ten years Mrs. Wilkinson had shared Bryntirion with him, and ensured the comfort of his home.

Mr. Lamb was an ardent Welshman, and an interesting personality. He was well read, and something of a writer himself, and one of his favourite pastimes was versifying in Welsh. He will be greatly missed at meetings of the Llangollen (Welsh) Literary Society.

The funeral took place on Friday morning, August 26th. The Vicar, Dr. J. Alun Thomas, who had enjoyed his company when a neighbour in the old Vicarage, conducted a service in St. John's Church and officiated at the graveside.

During the service he paid a wonderfully fitting tribute to his departed friend. Mr Lamb, he said, had spent his life at sea, and life at sea brings every man into touch with fundamental truth. Mr. Lamb was an original character, who lived a full life in all its aspects, preserving his mental and spiritual faculties to the end.

The mourners were few: Mr. David Lamb, Wallasey (brother); Mrs. Margaret Craddock, Streatham (daughter); Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. R. Llewelyn Hughes and Mrs. H. R. Hughes.

Floral tributes were from: His loving daughter Margaret; David, in memory of my dear brother; Mrs. Wilkinson and Joyce; G. E. Lloyd and family; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Horspool and staff; All at Belle View; Mrs. Manning, Leslie and Robert; Nancy and family; Mrs. Howard Wallasey; Warren, Joan and family.

Everyone is looking at old photographs these days. Here is one of a Grammar School football team, hoping this season's Bilateral School Eleven will do equally well.

SCHOOLS OPEN

Tomorrow, the Schools re-open. For Llangollen it will mean a new beginning, that of the Bi-Lateral School merging Grammar and Modern Schools.

We take this opportunity of wishing the Headmaster, Staff and Pupils all success in this educational development.

As those who visit the Historical Exhibition can learn from the 'education' exhibit there, Llangollen County School (renamed Grammar School after the Butler Act) opened on May 8th, 1859. The first Prize giving was held on March 11th, 1897 and the school was then still housed in the building which is now the Post Office.

On January 1st, 1895 the Governors issued an appeal for Donations to the Building Fund, having already had £805, £5 more than the authorities asked of them, but they wanted the best possible School. After 65 years the Governing Body of the County (Grammar) School held its last meeting on June 28th, 1960.

How to be Beautiful

Beauty is so much more than just the shape of a nose or the colour of an eye. A woman can be quite beautiful if she has lovely hair and a perfect skin, no matter what the shape of her features. Both these attributes are possible for all of us. Today, with the new hair rinses which can be used at home, we can choose our own exciting hair colour, and a beautiful complexion is simply a matter of skin care and careful make-up. Choosing correct make-up colours may present a problem unless we have expert advice, but expert advice is easy to come by. Claire Wallace, famous television beauty expert, has written two booklets on the whole subject of skin care and proper make-up, what to do and how to do it, which colours to choose — everything, in fact, that we need to know. "Beauty for Beginners" is for teenagers, and "You and Your Beauty" is for everyone else. If you would like one or both of these booklets free, write to Claire Wallace, 8 Hill Street, London W.1.

Cooking the Luxury Way

Did you know that evaporated milk can be used in place of cream in many recipes? Tempting creamy dishes, strictly in the luxury class, can be within the reach of every housewife's pocket. Surprise your guests by making these two impressive haute-cuisine dishes, "Poulet à la Crème" and "Crème Caramel".
Poulet à la Crème: Boil gently a boiling fowl until tender (about 2 hours). Cut the meat into neat pieces and arrange in a flat dish. Heat a tin of thick mushroom soup. Add a small tin Carnation milk and a wineglassful white wine. Do not boil. Season with pepper and salt. Pour the creamy soup over the chicken, garnish with mushrooms and tomatoes, and serve.

Crème Caramel: Boil 4 oz. sugar and  $\frac{1}{4}$  pt. water together until brown. Pour into a hot mould, coating the inside well. Heat together half pint evaporated milk and half pint of water. Pour on to three beaten eggs. Add 1 tablespoon sugar. Stir. Pour into the prepared mould. Place on a baking tin half filled with warm water and cook in a cool oven for  $\frac{3}{4}$ -1 hour. Loosen and turn out.

Candlelight and Moonlight

Entertaining out of doors can be fun if the weather is fine. Light your garden with paper japanese lanterns tied to sticks (the kind used for tying up flowers) and place these at intervals round the edge of the lawn. Special slow burning candles can be bought for use with japanese lanterns.

THE EXHIBITION

The Exhibition got off to a flying start. So many people came to the Opening Ceremony on Wednesday that a few were unfortunately unable to gain admittance to hear Prof. Dodd's address.

Among the visitors were Mr and Mrs Geraint Morgan, M.P., Mr Glyn Davies, Director of Education, Mr Luke, County Librarian, Mr Harris, Wrexham Library, Mr E. D. Jones and Miss Megan Ellis of the National Library. They, with Prof and Mrs Dodd were entertained in the Farmhouse kitchen on the Stage, and Mrs Dodd was presented with a posy culled from an old-world garden.

The Exhibition has more than delighted those who worked so hard, early and late, to set it up in 3½ hectic days. At last, everything was fitted in, nothing was lost, and the whole effect was enchanting. The Exhibition is so light as well as well lit, so well grouped around the shining Silver Trophy Bowl high on its white draped stand.

The cleverly arranged Pictorial Exhibit displays water colours lent by the National Library, and old photographs with equal success. The co-operation between national institutions and our own townspeople sensibly offering even the smallest item has resulted in a homogeneous display of the utmost interest.

Then there is the live exhibit on the Stage. All day long the mistress of the house goes quietly about her work yet always ready to stop and chat to visitors, whether they come in at the door and ensconce themselves on the settle, or merely talk to her from the floor of the Hall.

The first evening a Noson Lawen was held at 7 p.m. Mrs J. Rhys Roberts, 'Nain', Mr Price Jones and Telynores Eleri entertained Mr and Mrs John Thomas and Mr Idris Davies from Pontfadog and Miss Shani Jones. They responded in the most natural way with songs, recitation and a clog dance.

Mr Wilson had some excellent colour photos showing at his Lecture on the Canal (Aug 31) and Mr

Iorwerth Roberts in his vote of thanks paid a tribute to Mathew Davidson and his Welsh masons whose subsequent history in the highlands he had sought out.

Mr Meurig Jones on Saturday night was lucid on the geology and eloquent on the scenery—dramatic in his explanations of the upheavals which formed our valley.

At Saturday's Noson Lawen on the stage, Frances Môn Jones was the Harpist and Llangollen Folk Dance Group were the dancers, with a solo dance by Mr Hughes of Llanfyllin.

Most people are coming not once, but many times. A word of advice in your ear. If you want to see the Exhibition, do try and come before Saturday. There will certainly be a crowd, but if Saturday is your only possible day, don't let a possible crowd deter you. If you miss this Exhibition you will forever regret it.

DARTS

The Cambrian entertained the Duke, and tasted their first defeat of the season by 7—1. The home-sters gave a good account of themselves, and some of the games were good to see, but it was a case of a good club playing a better one. The Prince were again dishing it out, this time at the Cross, and were worthy winners 6—2. The Pon visited the R.A.F.A. club and came away with a 5—3 win. The Bridge End gained a point in their home match against the Star after a closely contested game. The Bull dropped a valuable point in their home match against the Grapes. On this form they must improve a little more to come up to last season's standard. The Aqueduct continued on their winning ways when they soundly thrashed Monsanto 6—2. The Wynnstay broke the ice by returning with a point from the Rockman's. The Sun dropped a point in their home match against the Smithfield, but could have done better.

Next week, the Prince will have something on their plate beside sandwiches, when they meet that youthful side, the Aqueduct. This young team have drawn with the champions, heavily defeated the runners-up, and as the Prince held the third position, could it be possible that this Aqueduct club will complete the hat-trick against the three top clubs? Yes, it's quite possible. The Duke entertains the Smithfield, and here the visitors should enjoy their sandwiches. I cannot see them snatching a point. Monsanto, after their heavy defeat of last week, should gain a point, if not two, in their home game against the Cambrian. The Wynnstay have the Cross to contend with. I think the visitors will prove too good for them. The Waterloo, who are rather unpredictable at the moment, could gain both points in their home game against the Rockman's. L.D.

OBITUARY

THE LATE MRS MABEL DAVIES

It was with great regret that relatives and friends heard of the death of Mrs Mabel Davies which occurred on Sept. 3rd at Llangollen Hospital where she had been a patient for only a few days; and the deepest sympathy is felt for her bereaved husband, Mr Charles Davies, of 54 Berwyn Street.

Mrs Davies, formerly Miss Mabel Hough was 69 years of age and a native of Stoke-on-Trent, and Mr Davies is of a Birkenhead family. It is only ten years since Mr and Mrs Davies retired from Widnes to live in Llangollen, but in that time Mrs Davies had endeared herself to all who knew her, for the kind and unselfish disposition which characterised her as a wife and mother was appreciated also by her neighbours and friends.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, Sept 7th. The Vicar, Dr J. Alun Thomas, conducted a brief service at the house, after which the cortege proceeded to Landican where cremation took place and where Dr. Thomas again officiated.

The mourners were Mr Charles Davies (widower); Miss Philippa Davies, Frodsham (daughter); Mr and Mrs Arthur Davies (son and daughter-in-law); Mrs Hodgkinson, Mrs Smith, Mrs Cash, Mrs Bettyony (sisters); Messers Joseph and William Hough (brothers); Mr and Mrs Tams (niece). At Landican they were joined by Mr George Davies (brother-in-law); Mrs Jack Davies (sister-in-law); Mrs J. Hough and Mr Charles Hough and many Birkenhead friends.

Floral tributes were received as follows:— Dad and Philippa; Clara, Arthur and families; All at Home, Stoke; Christine and Gillian; Dorothy; Betty and George; Uncle George; John and Beryl; Mrs Hough and Charlie; Mrs J. Davies; Miss Jenny Jackson; Mrs Ellis and family, 50 Berwyn St.; Mrs Williams, Denver; the Hughes family, 44 Berwyn St.; Mr and Mrs W. H. Roberts and Trevor; Mr and Mrs Jim Richards; Mrs Megan Wrixon; Mr S. C. Richards, Glascoed; All at No. 2 Berwyn St.

THANKS

Mr Davies, Son and Daughter wish to thank Dr Clarke and the Hospital Staff for their kind attention during the late Mrs Davies' illness, also friends and neighbours for their kind thoughts and floral tributes during their sad bereavement.

54 Berwyn St.,
Llangollen.

LLANGOLLEN W.I.

Sept 1st, 1960

Mrs Downham presided, supported by Mrs Davies Roberts, the Hon. Secretary. After the singing of 'Jerusalem' Mrs Downham welcomed Dr Clarke as a new member, and the visitors.

She began the meeting by reading a letter from Mrs Weekes, who is now residing at Cobham. Mrs Weekes expressed her thanks for the gift she had received from all the members at her last meeting and said how much she had enjoyed her five years as Secretary, and how she would miss Llan. W.I. The members present felt her absence very much.

Mrs Davies Roberts read the minutes of the previous meeting and the business was settled—dates to note: Oct. 6th at 1-30 in Wrexham "Making Ends Meet." Members wishing to attend to contact Mrs Evans, Greenfield Terrace.

Group meeting in Llan. Town Hall, Oct 14th.

Visit to Manchester food Exhibition Oct 20th—names to Mrs Noel Richards.

Mrs speaker for the evening was Mr John Jones who gave us the most wonderful display of flower arrangements. He told us points about his work and showed how to get the best from the flowers and foliage.

Members were entranced by the finished arrangements and quite amazed how such common leaves could look so beautiful in the right setting.

Mrs Markovits echoed all our thoughts when she thanked Mr Jones for such a wonderful evening. The meeting ended with tea and biscuits served by Mrs Wallace Williams and helpers and then the anthems.

Time had passed so quickly that everyone preferred to see more of Mr Jones' work and omit the usual social half-hour.

DARTS

Two shocks occurred this week lads, and believe me they were real shockers. The first was the defeat of the Prince by the Aqueduct 6-2. Neither team had been beaten prior to this match, both had surmounted grand obstacles but tonight there was only one team in it, and as good as the Prince played their opposition showed their superiority throughout. The Wynnstay match was another big surprise when they heavily defeated the Cross 6-2. The Grapes dropped two points in their home game against the R.A.F.A. The Monsanto club came back to form when they outplayed the Cambrian 6-2. The Bull had to go all the way to gain that solitary point from the Star.

This week the Wynnstay are due at the Aqueduct, and they could come away with a point you know. The Waterloo have an away game at the Cross. I think the homesters will prove too good for them. The R.A.F.A. entertain the Star, which will probably end up in a draw.

The Cambrian have the Prince to contend with. I cannot see the homesters taking the points. The Pon should pocket both points at their home game against the Grapes.

The Duke should put paid to any ambition the Bridge End may have in mind, and so should Monsanto at their away match against the Smithfield. — L.D.

WENFFRWD BRIDGE

Wenffrwd Bridge will be closed next Monday, Sept 19th for approximately three months, by which time it is hoped that the new bridge will replace the old one over the Canal. Wenffrwd, the Glen and adjacent houses will be more or less marooned as far as public transport is concerned! So will residents of Sun Bank.

Crosville Bus Service

Bridge End—Llandyn:

Time-table as follows:— Bridge End dep. 8-50 a.m.; 11-0 a.m.; 11-45 a.m.; 4-10 p.m.; 6-20 p.m.; 8-20 p.m.

Saturdays only: There are the following extras: 1-15 p.m.; 5-0 p.m.; and 7-0 p.m.

The Sunday Service is as follows: 1-20 p.m.; 3-20 p.m.; 5-20 p.m.; 8-20 p.m.

All these buses are at Llandyn four minutes after departure time, and immediately turn about for Llangollen.

Buses of the ordinary D route, Llangollen to Chester, will have its terminus at Sun Bank and run as usual every half hour. Buses from Llangollen to Wrexham and Chester will run every hour from Market Street.

But if you want to travel from Trevor to Llangollen by bus you will have to go to Acrefair, change buses and come via Newbridge to Market Street.

There will be a footbridge over the Canal at Wenffrwd during the time the road bridge is closed.

The Wenffrwd bend in the road will be straightened out. This involves taking a very small portion of the Glen garden, a rather larger portion of the Wenffrwd frontage garden facing west, removing the Glen's garage (and flat) further back, and taking quite a piece of the Fronheulog field, including a well, which is the north boundary the present road.

FOUND.— On Friday Sept 9 in the Vicarage Road, a wristlet watch. Owner please apply to J. Ress, 3, Castle Buildings, Llangollen.

WELSH FILMS AT EDINBURGH

Two films written and directed by John Ormond, the BBC's Welsh Region film producer have been selected for showing at the 14th Edinburgh International Film Festival. They are "Borrowed Pasture," a documentary about two Polish soldiers who work a lonely Carmarthen-shire farm and "A Sort of Welcome to Spring," which evokes the coming of the season in city and countryside, is scheduled for screening in the third week of the festival. The films were seen on BBC television in March and May of this year.

Forty-eight countries were invited to submit films to this year's Edinburgh Festival and many hundreds of films from all over the world were examined by the Selection Committee before the 21-day schedule was drawn up.

The BBC's Welsh Film Unit's "Borrowed Pasture" put the name of Wales on the screen on September 2nd, when Australian, German, American, Bulgarian and Italian films were also shown.

Edinburgh is a non-competitive festival but certificates of participation are issued to films selected for showing. The judges say they select work "which contributes, with originality and imagination, to the development of the cinema as a creative medium."

The two films made by John Ormond and the BBC Welsh Film Unit have the voices of famous Welsh actors reading commentary. Richard Burton reads the commentary in "Borrowed Pasture" and Meredith Edwards in the piece on Spring, shown last Wednesday.

Knitwear for Summer

Now that we are halfway through one of the most miserable summers of recent years, and the chances of long, warm days spent in cotton frocks recede, we might as well resign ourselves to the comfort of woollies. Braemar helps to make the best of a cool summer with feather-weight pastel shade cardigans in finest merino 70 wool, to be worn over light cotton dresses, or delicious baby lambswool jumpers to wear with cotton skirts, fluffed out with lots of frilly petticoats. Tuck the jumper into the waistband and cover with a wide, soft suede belt cinched as tight as you can bear it, if you are young enough, or choose one of the straight, button-through, V-necked cardigans which can be worn either over a dress, or as the top part of a two-piece.

Beauty begins with Middle Age

In any language, nothing is more appealing to the eye than a beautiful woman. And the one who captures more admiration than most is frankly over fifty and not afraid to show it. She's the one who's discovered that her age is filled with many lovely compensations — and she's learning to enjoy all of them. When a woman looks into a mirror and realizes she's no longer a girl (and this takes time — girls are growing older every year) her reaction might be one of defiance, despair or determination. She could resolve to become fiercely and forever young, and attempt to dispose of her years with stronger dyes and louder make-up. Or, after sadly viewing her image, give up and give in to the unpopular fiction that beauty is a pointless frivolity after middle age. Or, she can see herself in an entirely new rôle — as a woman who has put aside girlish things for a special kind of mature loveliness all her own. Beauty can be a lot of fun, so keep yours by using gentler lipstick, more delicate rouge, lighter powder and only a touch of eyebrow pencil.

Women's Interests

Away from it all

There are blue skies ahead for this lucky young woman. In a few moments she'll be stepping aboard the aeroplane for the holiday of a lifetime . . . and it will cost her only £1! For months she has been buying Premium Savings Bonds. Presents of money bought more and her savings were mounting steadily. Then, suddenly, her luck was in and she was one of the 20,000 bondholders who win cash prizes from £25 to £1,000 each month. Her winnings paid for a new hair-do, clothes for the trip, and there'll be presents for all the family when she gets back from her dream holiday. This could be you. With a Premium Bond in your pocket the world could be your oyster, and a journey to the post office can take you farther than you'd think. From November top prizes of £5,000 will be in the draw for the first time and there'll be more smaller prizes. Buy a Bond today.

THE EXHIBITION

"Wonderful" was the word oftenest heard last week. It was on the lips of everyone who had been to the Exhibition. The 5,000 mark attendance does not include the parties of schoolchildren from Llangollen, Ruabon and Colwyn Bay, nor the stewards, committee and Noson Lawen personnel. It represents the number of sixpenny tickets sold and we think the figure was 5,060. Few were content with one visit: some came almost daily, and still wished for another week.

As Mr Archer's letter says, it was a fine effort of co-operation, some contributing much, and the many contributing their mite, with equal enthusiasm. And many a mickle made a muckle. ?

We feel sure that no one will cavil at our singling out Mr Attenburrow's contribution—the lay-out and lighting effects—as the stroke of genius that transformed the dead past into so fascinating an experience—always remembering that genius includes 'an infinite capacity for taking pains.'

And what a mercy the Committee, very early on, decided to give Mr Wynne Jones a free hand to collect as many photographs as he liked, without exercising the severe selection applied to other sections. For the enjoyment of the grandfathers looking upon their youthful selves in F.C. rigout, and the enjoyment of the not so old looking for their grandparents in Victorian and Edwardian "groups" was immense.

Again this week, we had two lectures.

On Wednesday night, Mr Scott Archer, having delved into Parish Registers, and Hearth Tax returns, and applied his mathematics to them, produced population statistics for Llangollen (excluding Glyn Traian) for 1600—1800, whereby it emerged that the population doubled in that period: 800 in the year 1600 and 1,600 at the 1801 Census. Mr Archer's Map of the Townships brought to the lecture, was of great interest.

On Saturday night, to a crowded audience Mr J. Iorwerth Roberts gave us "snapshots" of the 19th Century, taking us over the Bridge with its congestion if 6,000 pedestrians, hundreds of horses, cattle, pigs and scores of carts in 1871, past the tollgate to the Green, back to the whitewashed cottages which straddled across what is now the lower end of Castle Street into the wide spaces of Greenfield or Cae'r felin. to the County Hall (now Eisteddfod office) down chapel St with its Hand farmyard to the Church, with its one-time parsonage house where the east wing of the Hand now stands. Llangollen, he said, was a predominantly Welsh community right up to the 1870's and the evidence he gave for this was most interesting.

We had with us a veteran of local history to thank the lecturer, namely the Rev. Daniel Williams, who received a warm welcome. Mr Hubert Parry actually proposed the vote of thanks. Mr Emrys Davies presided.

The last Noson Lawen in "Miss Hartley's Kitchen" was staged by the Llangollen Literary Society. Telynores Eleri from Penybont fawr was there and our Pontfadog friends. "Dawns y brws" was done by past pupils of the Grammar School who had competed at this year's Eisteddfod, Dennis Owen, Martin Edwards and Hywel Gruffydd joined in also. Mrs Iorwerth Roberts and Mr Albert Davies sang.

Uncatalogued Exhibits

Probably all our readers possess copies of the Catalogue, now out of print. Some interesting exhibits came in too late to be included, and even while the Exhibition was in progress;— The reputed Abbot's ring lent by Lady Curties, this was a gold signet ring with a curious incised design. The beautiful painting of a bridge scene brought in by a Birkenhead lady; the Stone-age chiselled axe lent by Mr Sands who found it when ploughing a field on the Tyncelyn side; the stomach warmer made by John Clarke, the photograph of Vicar James lent by Miss M. James, Oswestry, photos of Gohebydd and of Mr Olley lent by Mrs Hughes, Glenwood.

Hung on the excellent screens lent by Flint and Denbs. Rural Industries Association were enough fine prints and paintings to make an Art Exhibition. A very fine colour wash of Eglwyseg Manor House by Mildred Eldridge (1941) came from the National Museum. Opposite it was the delightful water colour of Mr Eyton's Vicarage (Woodlands) by Moses Griffith.

It is extraordinary how many artists devoted their talents of Llangollen Bridge. The prints and paintings of this seem innumerable.

Of original photographic work done specially for the Exhibition, one must mention Mr Hubert Parry's wells of the saints—Collen, Ty-silio and Tegla and Ffynnon Fair at Penycae, Mr Lewis Davies series of Llangollen houses and Mr John Clarke's photographs of old chapels.

Mr Lewis Davies's models of the Castle and the Abbey we hope will someday be part of a permanent local history collection.

Would we have had the present one but for the driving force of the Chairman? Would everything be in such good order but for the indefatigable Mr Benbow? And Mr Best always cool, calm and collected, having fetched and carried for two days is at the present moment, no doubt returning exhibits large and small to their owners. And the unnamed band of the younger set who worked so quickly and so efficiently. And the less spectacular secretarial work of Mr Bell and Mr Emrys Davies.

My last snap-shot—on Friday evening—Miss Hartley seated at the Kitchen table reading from the big Bible while Mrs Emrys Roberts knitted quietly on the settle. Then up with the candle and so off stage to bed.
