History of Newport Cricket Club

'The Officers & Officials'

Unsung Heroes

In the Cricket Club section of the 'Newport Athletic Club 1875 - 1975 Centenary Book' authors J. F. Burrell and W. E. Davies, make reference to the unstinting efforts of the Club's Officials over many years by saying :-

'This record cannot be concluded without a reference to all of the other cricket members whose names have not been mentioned for they never achieved the ultimate glory. Without them however, those mentioned could not have achieved what they did, and all their efforts are hereby acknowledged. Similarly, the Section's thanks must be accorded to the umpires and scorers over the years for, again without them, the games could not have been played or records prepared.'

Umpires

Names of Umpires who have stood for the Club are Arthur Porter, John Holloway, Phil Morris, Alan Brown, Bob Marsh, Allan Jones, A. Williams, W. Lewis, Les Nicholls, F. Whitehill, J. Hindson, L. Bround, C. Payne, B. James, I. Evans, A. Webb, J. Rust, J. Martin, F. Fenn and even George Boots as far back as 1903. There must have been other but the records are somewhat thin in the dim and distant past. Appointed League Umpires controlled 1st XI matches from the mid-eighties..

Scorers

As far as scorers are concerned the names of Miss J. Cockeram, G. A. Webb, E. R. P. Bray, and Bill Tucker are recorded. In a later era Keith, Arthur Porter, Malcolm Lewis and Phil Stallard have all scored with distinction. Kevin Probert took on the role as 1st team scorer in 2015, introducing computer technology to the art of scoring.

'The Officers'

Any successful organisation has a group of dedicated people who give up much time and effort to run the Club - in the case of Newport Cricket Club, all voluntarily. List of Club Officers from the early Sixties includes :-

Sincere thanks to all of the Officers and Officials who have served the Club throughout it's history. Without their unstinted support and commitment, the Club would not have enjoyed it's successes
