

Date	61 Eastgate, Post Office Sorting Office, Cowbridge	Source
	Formerly the Pelican Inn (a Carne property, this bird being on their coat of arms)
1675	Deeds referring to land acquired on the marriage of Thomas Carne and Catherine Bassett, include the Pelican, Cowbridge	D/D C 226-247
1751 (& 1776)	Carne rentals - house and garden in upper village called the Pelican. Lease for three lives of Mary Morgan, Ann Morgan, John Morgan	D/D C E/1/100
1783	Rev. John Carne owner; Elizabeth Morgan occupier, one burgage, the Pelican	BR 108
1804, April 20	'I attended the meeting this day on the property tax at the Pelican'	Robert Nicholl, Llanblethian D/D CF 16
1806-1816	Thomas Markham esq. owned; Elizabeth Ballard, ? Bowen, or Thomas Scandrett occupied, one burgage	BR 108
1830	Mrs Markham owned; John Howe occupied, 4/-	LTA
1833	Mrs Markham owned; I Bowen and others occupied	BR 108
1843	Owner John Carne; occupier John Howe	Tithe 87
1851	John Howe, 58, baker with wife Ann, a lodger (a skinner), three other lodgers (scholars), a servant, and a granddaughter	Census 211
1861	William Lewis, 25, plasterer and tiler journeyman, with wife Anne	Census 36
1871	William Lewis, wife, sons John and William and daughter Ann, plus a servant.	Census 41
1881	William Lewis, with his wife, three sons and a daughter	Census 208
1891	Isaac Thomas, 42, boot and shoemaker, with his wife Ruth, 6 daughters and three sons, plus his mother-in-law, Ann Jones	Census 204
1910	O Mason, GPO
1926	Lewis Jenkins owned; The Post Office, being 61 Eastgate Street	Agreement with Mid Glamorgan Water Board
1947	William and Doris Baskerville, John and Gordon Baskerville, the Post Office	Register of electors
Ca late 1990s	After the closure of the Post Office, the premises operated as 'The Barefoot Studio' (fitness classes etc.)	