SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL.

The annual Festival of the Sunday Schools of the Deanery was held in St. Mary's on Wednesday in Whitsun week, when a large number of scholars from the various parishes in the Deanery were catechised by the Vicar of Newport. The answers to the questions were exceptionally good and the teachers must have been gratified with the results of their efforts in teaching the specified subjects. After the service Miss Thomas, of Crossways, very kindly entertained the children to an excellent tea in the Town Hall. Mr. Goulden catered for the 300 children and teachers. The Clergy of the Deanery tender their warmest thanks to Miss Thomas for her kindness in entertaining the children and teachers.

THE CORONATION.

Whatever may be the faults and idiosyncracies peculiar to Cowbridge and the district the inhabitants were not lacking in their sense of loyalty to the throne during coronation week. Thanks to the Mayor (Councillor D. Tilley) whose powers of organization, as we know, need no comment, and the large body of workers which assisted him, everything connected with the coronation celebrations passed off most successfully. Space will not admit of our dealing with any details, but the arrangements for the opening of the baths, the Service in St. Mary's, the procession of the children, the tea on the Gypsy field followed by the sports, the babes competition and the dance in the Town Hall, were all so excellently arranged that the whole town, with perhaps the exception of the usual chronic grumblers here and there, are delightfully satisfied, and are grateful to the Mayor and his responsive Committees for their efforts. Last, but not least, our grateful thanks are due to the subscribers for their generous help towards the celebrations.

An interesting wedding took place in Llanblethian Church on Coronation morning, when Mr. Robert Thomas was married to Miss Mabel Silk. The Service was choral and there was a large congregation of friends present. Mr. Robert Thomas is a familiar figure amongst us, for he is not only a chorister, and faithful Sunday school teacher, but manages the Children's Bank at Llanblethian Sunday school. We wish the young people every possible good wish for their future welfare. On Tuesday evening Mr. Thomas was the recipient of two handsome wedding gifts: an oaken tea tray from the Sunday school teachers, and a Caroline timepiece from the Choir and friends.

The Vicar will be away during the first fortnight of this month, and on Sunday, July 16th, his duties will be taken by the Rev. Harold Thomas, B.A.

To celebrate the Coronation and to show the members of the Llanblethian Choir some tangible appreciation of their faithfulness and services. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dunn, The Cross, gave the adult choristers an excellent supper in the schoolroom last Tuesday evening. It was a large and happy gathering, and while the occasion will be long remembered as an enjoyable one, it will also stand out as an event which tended to bind still more closely the unity, harmony and faithfulness of the Llanblethian choir. We are grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Dunn for their thoughtfulness and kindness in entertaining the choristers.

AN APPEAL.

The Vicar would be glad if volunteers would come forward and fill the bass and tenor vacancies in St. Mary's Choir. After years and years of service the older choristers feel that they must give up and make room for the younger ones. It would be wrong to surmise, leave alone to make the statement, that the musical ability of the town is not what it was. Shall we "wait and see"?

The annual "summer meeting" of our branch of the Mothers' Union will be held this year, through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. John, on the grounds of Marlboro' Grange, on Wednesday, July 26th. There will be a short service and address in Llanblethian Church at 2.45 p.m. before proceeding to Marlboro' Grange.

The annual Sunday school treat will be held on the first Wednesday in August.

The Misses E. Llewellyn, C. James and E. James, were confirmed by the Bishop in Llantrisant Church, on Thursday, June 1st.
