

British Legion's New Standard Bearer

Mrs Statia Bond, the new Standard Bearer of the Women's Section of the Cowbridge Branch of the British Legion, is busy practising control of the heavy flag, for she has many important functions ahead of her this year.

Mrs Bond, who took over the job at short notice from the previous standard bearer, Mrs Margaret Price, will carry the standard at the parade at Cardiff on Wednesday, when the Queen Mother will hand over the Book of Remembrance.
