Dan Williams, Tour Chairman, reported that he went to the Forty Fort Cemetary and cleaned Gwilym Gwent's tombstone and talked with his great-granddaughter. Again Dan stated that he needs another trolley or bus.

Mayor Namey met with some of the Executive Board and stated that he will gladly help in anyway he can. A picture was taken with the Mayor. The Executive Board will meet with the Police Dept. sometime in August going over the shuttle bus system and etc.

Jeanne Jones, Market Place Chairman, stated that (54) tables have been reserved for the Market Place.

Beth told the group that the "castle" being brought to our Gymanfa is only a facade and maybe placed at the entrance to the Market Place. Hours for the Market Place are as follows: Thursday, Friday and Saturday nine to five, Sunday the Market Place will be open from ten to noon. Earl Williams will apply for a tax number.

Mona Jones is taking orders for the white mob caps being worn by the Hospitality Committee.

Meryl Davis needs presenters for the Seminars and also to collect tickets.

Beth told the committee that there will be three people playing the folk music instead of two and there will be no extra cost. Check to be sent for airfare.

The tickets for all events have been ordered.

The Ramada, Genetti's and Red Roof have sent out their hotel confirmations. Beth will check with Holiday Inn, Howard Johnson and Days Inn to do same.
